

NARAL

Pro-Choice America Foundation

MEMORANDUM

To: File
From: NARAL Pro-Choice America Legal and Policy Research Department
Date: March 29, 2005
Re: Child Interstate Abortion Notification Act (CIANA) States

The following lists states that are either:

- CCPA Compliant (Requires strict parental notice/consent),
- Non-Compliant (Requires parental/notice but other adults can be notified/give consent or the requirement can be waived by a health care provider), or have
- No Law restricting young women's access to abortion on the books.

23 Red States: AL, AZ, AR, GA, IN, KS, KY, LA, MA, MI, MN, MS, MO, NE, ND, PA, RI, SD, TN, TX, UT, VA, WY.

10 Yellow States: CO, DE, IA, ME, MD, NC, OH, SC, WI, WV.

17 Green States: AK, CA, CT, DC, FL, ID, IL, MT, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, OK, OR, VT, WA.

Doctor is In State With... → Young Woman is From State With... ↓	STRICT PARENTAL- INVOLVEMENT MANDATE	PARENTAL-INVOLVEMENT MANDATE THAT HAS REASONABLE ALTERNATIVES	NO PARENTAL-INVOLVEMENT MANDATE
STRICT PARENTAL- INVOLVEMENT MANDATE	The young woman must comply with BOTH her home state law and the laws of her doctor's state. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain TWO judicial bypasses, in both her home state and her doctor's state.	The young woman must comply with BOTH her home state law and the laws of her doctor's state. AND the doctor must give in-person notice to a parent. AND the young woman is subjected to mandatory 24-hour delay even if her parent accompanies her. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain TWO judicial bypasses, in both her home state and her doctor's state.	The young woman must comply with the laws in her home state. AND the doctor must give in-person notice to a parent. AND the young woman is subjected to mandatory 24-hour delay even if her parent accompanies her. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain judicial bypass in her home state.
PARENTAL- INVOLVEMENT MANDATE THAT HAS REASONABLE ALTERNATIVES	The young woman must comply with the laws of her doctor's state. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain judicial bypass in her doctor's state. (CIANA does not change current law in this situation; these requirements already exist.)	The young woman must comply with the laws of her doctor's state. AND the doctor must give in-person notice to a parent. AND the young woman is subjected to mandatory 24-hour delay even if her parent accompanies her. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain TWO judicial bypasses, in both her home state and her doctor's state.	The doctor must give in-person notice to a parent. AND the young woman is subjected to mandatory 24-hour delay even if her parent accompanies her. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain judicial bypass in her home state.
NO PARENTAL- INVOLVEMENT MANDATE	The young woman must comply with the laws of her doctor's state. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain judicial bypass according to the laws in her doctor's state. (CIANA does not change current law in this situation; these requirements already exist.)	The young woman must comply with the laws of her doctor's state. AND the doctor must give in-person notice to a parent AND the young woman is subjected to mandatory 24-hour delay even if her parent accompanies her. If the young woman seeks judicial bypass: She must obtain judicial bypass according to the laws in her doctor's state, but a bypass in this state will not waive the federal notice requirement.	The doctor must give in-person notice to a parent. AND the young woman is subjected to mandatory 24-hour delay even if her parent accompanies her. No judicial bypass option